

TapKat Solutions LLC Copyright Policy

Last Updated: 11/1/2019

This statement of our copyright policy is meant to provide you with information about the general stance we take toward the many copyright issues that can arise in the context of an online social networking environment. This page also includes an email address and mailing address for you (i) report infringing activity or (ii) protest the removal of content you have previously posted on the tapkat.com website or tapkat.org sweepstakes sites. As always, thank you for visiting tapkat.com; we appreciate your time and hope that the resources on this page will be helpful to you.

As a company, we encourage and value each individual's right to free expression. We do not, however, condone the infringement of others' legal rights in the name of free expression. We are committed to protecting the legal rights of all of the members of the public we have the privilege of interacting with, including copyright holders.

To copyright holders, we wish to assure you that we are committed to working with you to make sure that infringing activity by those using the tapkat.com website or tapkat.org sweepstakes sites is kept to a minimum. Since we are a small company and our member base keeps growing every day, it's simply not feasible for us to monitor the activity of each person using our websites. If someone using our websites has infringed a right that you hold under the Copyright Laws of the United States, please let us know by email or mail using the addresses below. We promise to do our best to work with you to resolve any issue(s) as quickly and fairly as possible!

To repeat infringers, if we find that your use of the tapkat.com website or sweepstakes sites has involved multiple violations of the copyright laws, or multiple alleged violations, we will terminate your account.
